

Midvale City
Hall of Honors
Presented by Midvale Arts Council

The Hall of Honors is made up of native (or adopted) sons and daughters of Midvale who have made significant contributions to Midvale and/or those whose accomplishments and achievements have brought fame and recognition to Midvale as a community. The recipient of the award will be inducted into the Hall of Honors at a Ceremony and Reception during Harvest Days. Current Mayor, City Council, and members of the Arts Council are not eligible for consideration of this award until such a time and he or she is no longer on these Councils. Nominations are kept on file for 5 years consideration.

To be considered for the 2023 award, the application must be received by 5:00 pm on Friday, May 5, 2023. Applications can be submitted via email to admin@midvalearts.com or by mailing them to 695 West Center Street, Midvale, Utah 84047

Name of Nominee: _____ Living Deceased

Address of Nominee: _____

Phone number of Nominee: _____

Nominated by: _____

Address: _____

Phone Number: _____

How has this person demonstrated significant contributions to Midvale City?

Please list any positions held, activities, programs, etc. in Midvale City with which this person has been involved.

Please attach to this application any additional information (photographs, newspaper articles, awards, etc.) that further demonstrates this person's contribution to Midvale City & supports your petition for this award.